Walt Disney World “Expert” Tips

The more you visit the Walt Disney World Resort, the more you become an “expert” at the art of having the most enjoyment possible! This is what many “experts” do:

❖ Meet lots of Disney Characters. It's easy if you know where and when to look! They appear daily in the Magic Kingdom, Epcot Center and the Disney-MGM Studios Theme Park, and at Disney Character Dining experiences in several Disney Resorts. Mickey Mouse himself will sign autographs and pose for photos in his own backstage dressing room at Mickey's Starland in the Magic Kingdom.

🐭 Take a break. At midday, when the parks are the warmest and busiest, it's easy to visit a nearby Disney Resort for a cool, quiet lunch.

🐭 Set up unusual lunch and dinner times so you can visit the most popular attractions while others dine.

🐭 At the Magic Kingdom, choose Liberty Square or Frontierland as a parade viewing area.

🐭 At Epcot Center, enjoy World Showcase in the morning, and Future World at night. Arrive about 30 minutes early to choose a good viewing point for "IllumiNations," presented by G.E.

🐭 At the Disney-MGM Studios Theme Park, visit popular attractions like The Great Movie Ride, presented by Coca-Cola, or Backstage Studio Tour early in the morning or at dinnertime. The Backstage Studio Tour takes about an hour and a half, so plan dining reservations carefully.

🐭 Find out what's going on and don't miss a thing! Guidebooks and entertainment schedules (listing live shows, character appearances and special events) are available at:

Magic Kingdom—City Hall

Epcot Center—Earth Station

Disney-MGM Studios Theme Park—Guest Services and Crossroads of the World

🐭 For additional information, theme park hours and ticket prices, please call the Walt Disney World Information line: (407) 824-4321.

The Walt Disney World Resort offers exciting "on-stage" and behind-the-scenes learning programs for young people and adults.

Wonders of Walt Disney World

For students 10–15 years old–6 hours.

These learning adventures explore the technical, creative and natural wonders of our property. In many cases, students can earn school credit by participating in one of the following exciting subjects:

An explanation of the delicate balance that exists between people and the natural environment. Students see rare and endangered animals at Discovery Island and the Walt Disney World Conservation Area.

○ Art Magic: Bringing Illusion to Life

A study of the miraculous illusions created at the Walt Disney World Resort, explained firsthand by a Disney animator. Students see how Disney artists create magic in movies, stage shows and theme parks.

○ Show Biz Magic: The Walt Disney World of Entertainment

An inside look at what is involved in being an entertainer at the Walt Disney World Resort. Disney performers and technicians explain the importance of rehearsals, lighting, costumes and music in a show.

○ Registration

Each "Wonders of Walt Disney World" program is $75 per person and includes a colorful activity book, classroom materials, six hours of instruction, Theme Park and backstage access during the program, lunch and a certificate of completion. A World of Shopping

Shopping is an art at the Walt Disney World Vacation Kingdom! In addition to over 50 shops at the Magic Kingdom, there are nearly 20 at the Disney-MGM Studios Theme Park, and nearly 60 at Epcot Center.

(Time Saving Tip: Shop early in the day at the Theme Parks. It's a snap to store your purchases in lockers. Epcot Center also provides package pick-up service.)

Each of the Disney Resorts has its own special flair for fashions, keepsakes and giftware. And then there's the Disney Village Marketplace, with 18 shops filled with everything from classic, decorative articles and gifts from European designers to Florida souvenirs and the largest selection of Disney merchandise anywhere. A footbridge away is Pleasure Island and 11 more shops offering private-label fashions, accessories, T-shirts, posters and prints—the works.

Some shops are themed to specific locations, some feature delightful animated Disney character displays, but they all have one thing in common—outstanding merchandise selected with care, attention to quality, and most of all—fun!
